

2023 AGOSCI Membership Form

What is AGOSCI?

AGOSCI is a voluntary organisation which seeks to support people with complex communication needs, as well as those who live, know or work with them. Established in 1981, AGOSCI aims to lobby for the rights of people with complex communication needs, increase public awareness of complex communication needs, and to provide relevant educational and professional development events across Australia. Our membership includes individuals with complex communication needs, family and community members, teachers, speech pathologists, occupational therapists and other professionals.

As a member of AGOSCI:

- You will receive AGOSCI in Focus - a twice yearly magazine issued in June and December.
- You will receive a discounted rate for AGOSCI events.
- Your State Representative will send you information about AGOSCI events such as the National Tour, National Conference and any other AGOSCI events in your state. (To keep costs down we prefer to send notification via email.)
- You will have opportunity to network & share information about complex communication needs at a state level.

Membership Options:

Standard or Organisational Membership	$ 110
Overseas Membership	$ 150
Concession Membership	$ 50

Concession Membership - person who uses AAC / parent of a person who uses AAC/ full-time undergraduate student. All prices include GST.

Organisations may apply for a Standard Membership. This will allow one person from that organisation to attend any AGOSCI event at a reduced rate and one person to vote on behalf of the organisation at AGOSCI meetings.

Membership Enquiries:

Please direct enquiries to your State Representative (contact details on the website) or to the AGOSCI treasurer on agoscitreasurer@agogsci.org.au or the AGOSCI on education@agogsci.org.au. Alternatively, ring AGOSCI's phone +61 498 796 661 and leave a message.
