About this book

This book is by AGOSCI.

When you see the word we it means AGOSCI.

AGOSCI is a community of

AAC stands for augmentative and alternative communication.

AAC means people use other ways to get their message across.

- be part of the community.

We teach people about communication supports needs.

Some people use some AAC to support their speech.

Some people mainly use signs, pictures, writing or a device to tell others their message.

Volunteers are in charge of AGOSCI.

Volunteers are people who
